

Lucia Naldi

Lucia Naldi is Professor in Business Administration and Senior Advisor to the President for Internationalization at Jönköping International Business School. Her main research and teaching are in the areas of entrepreneurship, international business and strategy. Her research focuses on growth and development of small and young firm. She is also interested in entrepreneurship in different contexts, including family firms, media firms, and firms located in rural areas. Naldi has participated in a number of research projects, published in leading international journals, such as Journal of Management, Journal of Business Venturing, Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice, and Long-Range Planning.

Giovanna Campopiano

Giovanna Campopiano is Associate Professor of Family Business at Lancaster University Management School and Co-Director of the LUMS Centre for Family Business. Her research is at the intersection of entrepreneurship and strategy, with a specific focus on family businesses and social responsibility. She has published articles on these topics in leading journals, received several awards, and joined the editorial review boards of Family Business Review and Journal of Family Business Strategy.

Anita Van Gils

Anita Van Gils holds a professorship position in the Dutch Center of Expertise in Family Business at Windesheim University of Applied Sciences. She combines this role with a position as Associate Professor in the School of Business and Economics at Maastricht University. Anita is also a member of the Scientific Committee of the Center for Young and Family Enterprise (CYFE) at the University of Bergamo (Italy) and an Associate Editor for the Journal of Family Business Strategy.

Georges Samara

Georges completed his Ph.D. studies at ESADE Business School in Barcelona, Spain. He is the winner of the extraordinary doctorate award (2017-2018), the best family business paper award (Academy of Management, 2019) along with several international best research papers nominations and awards. His research revolves around family business and corporate social responsibility
Editor in Chief, Business Ethics: A European Review, Wiley

Massimo Bau'

Massimo Bau is Associate Professor in Business Administration at the Jönköping International Business School (JIBS) in Sweden and Co-Director of the Centre for Family Enterprise and Ownership (CeFEO). I joined JIBS and CeFEO in 2012. His research interests are related to the entrepreneurial process in three main research areas. First, family dynamics and influence of family members on the actor's decision of entry and exit into the entrepreneurial process. Second, academic entrepreneurship and factors enabling new venture start-up and technology transfer. Third, firm's growth paths through collaborative agreements and inter-firms networks. I explore these phenomena adopting a quantitative approach.

Salvatore Sciascia

Salvatore Sciascia is Full Professor of Family Business & Strategic Management at Università Cattaneo – LIUC (Italy) where he is also the Rector's delegate for research. He is a member of the Editorial Review Board of Entrepreneurship Theory & Practice, Family Business Review, Journal of Family Business Strategy, Journal of Small Business Management, Journal of Management & Governance and Piccola Impresa / Small Business.